MAKE SERMON SUBJECT Rev. Harry Manter of Nova

At the Sunday evening service at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Rov. Harry Manzer of Cape Sable. Nova Scotia, delivered a highly interesting sermon to an appreciative congregation. The service was led by the paster of the church, Rev. F. W. Coleman. In part Rev. Mr. Manzer spoke as follows:

We remember more or less distinctly the old problems of profit and loss we used to wrestle with. I come to you with a problem in prefit and loss set forth by Jesus Christ, Himselft What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

The financial activities of the world

the whole world and loss his own soul?"

The financial activities of the world are based on this question—whether it will pay or whether it will not pay. I come to you with the problem of Christ. If a man makes the present world but forfelts the hisher life of the soul, will it pay? Will it be a profitable adventure. To have life eternal is to know God. The scientists say a man is dead when he is out of communication with his surreundings. A man is spiritually dead when he is out of communication with God. The man who is not acquainted with God is spiritually dead,

The spark of life must be developed if we are to know Jesus Christ. The man who knows not God may not be a monster in spite of the fact that various names have been applied to him. But he is only half a man: he is not fully developed as God would have him. Men ow the past who are known to the world today have become known because of their goodness. Ruskin says: "I do not wonder at what men suffer, but I wonder at what they lose." By shutting God out of our lives we are losing in a measure as we shut Him out. Are you content to lone the precious jewel which God has entrusted to your care? What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? One of the great regrets of men and women is the wasting of the spiritual life. Don't go down to the close of life and say: I have wested my life. A partner in business is a great help, said Rev. Mr. Mauzer in closing, and I wish we might link ourselves in partnership with God.
